

Sharing music with our community since 1969

320 W 8th St, #100A
Bloomington, IN 47404
812-331-2320

bsobloomingtonsymphony.com

Production Manager Needed

We all know Bloomington is an amazing place to live and work. We've got great weather, a fine University, a vibrant community, and access to all sorts of leisure activities, but did you know that we're also home to one of the best community orchestras in the Midwest? Now in its 53rd season, the Bloomington Symphony Orchestra is one of Bloomington's most enduring arts organizations. Join our team and help us continue bringing great music to our community!

Job description:

The BSO production manager assumes the primary role for all matters involving rehearsal and performance space, equipment rental and transportation, and the physical or technical aspect of all concert performances.

Time commitment:

- Rehearsals: August -May, most Tuesdays 6-7pm, 9:30-10pm, Set up and tear down of space
- Performances: 6-8 concerts through the year (usually Sundays 11am - 8pm plus 2 midweek evenings)
- Other: Arrange transportation of equipment to and from the performance venue.
- Total ~130 hours annually
- Minimum 1 year commitment required

Requirements:

- Ability to lift up to 40 pounds
- Valid driver's license
- Able to drive a small rental truck

Compensation: $320 per month for 12 months

Job start date: August 15th

Email us with your interest by August 1, 2022

bsobloomingtonsymphony.com